Christmas celebrations throughout the world

By Kem Weise

According to Smith, the idea started in November when the Sebastopol City Council amalgamated into a single Planning Commission. "It was really an idea that came from residents who were concerned about the impact of the stay-at-home order on their daily lives and their ability to plan for the future," Smith said. "It was a way for people to come together and support each other during these difficult times."
Happiest time of the year

The Community Voice newspaper is a progressive church with friendly people, as we support the community, nation and race. The next day is self-determination or Kujichagulia, which is a principle that encourages us to define and speak for ourselves. Ujamaa, or cooperative work and responsibility, also plays a role in helping solve others' problems. The final day is Ugama, or cooperation between communities. The Neighborhood Voice is an adjudicated newspaper in accordance with the laws of the State of California to be the newspaper of general circulation inSonoma County, dated August 22, 1994, and qualified for publication in a newspaper.

Happy holidays December 2020

By Cassandra May Althoff

Our holidays will be celebrated differently this year; they will be celebrated differently this year. Depending on your viewpoint, some will view this year's holidays as a blessing to be thankful for, while others may view this year's holidays as a curse to be avoided. However, this year's holidays will be celebrated differently this year.

Pets

Polar Bears are the only living species of bears with white fur, and the only bears that hibernate. They are native to the Arctic and are highly adapted to their environment, with thick fur, a thick layer of blubber, and an insulating layer of fat. They are also excellent swimmers and can be found swimming in the Arctic Ocean.

Mort took over for former Acting Police Chief Greg De Vore following De Vore’s resignation. De Vore served as acting chief while De Vore sought a permanent position. Mort has over 30 years of experience as a police officer.

The City of Sebastopol has raised the issue of gun violence, but De Vore said the issue is not specific to Sebastopol. Community Manager Larry Marquand that the City of Sebastopol has given him the opportunity to be a part of the solution.

Among Mort’s recommendations for improving the Sebastopol Police Department are increased visibility and transparency. The said implementing neighborhood policing through a heat structure like the one in Cincinnati would help make Sebastopol police officers more accessible and engaged with the community.

The police department could also use app-based crime statistics and new technologies like Facebook Live to connect with the community.

Mort, who began his career in law enforcement as a BART police officer 30 years ago, has worked for the Concepcion Police Department and served as chief of the Dixon Police Department.

After leaving Dixon, Mort was promoted within the department serving as a patrol officer before becoming the police academy coordinator until 2011.

As interim chief, Mort has spent time working on a plan and engaging with the community on a variety of topics.

Mort’s predecessor, Chief Donald Mort, laid out his perspectives on challenges and improvements.

Happy holidays everybody, stay safe out there; thank you for reading!
For years, Gavin Newsom had a habit of lying. He legalized marijuana in California. He lied. Then he was in San Francisco, and then he was in LA. He lied. He opened up over 200 schools a day. He lied. He opened a restaurant. He lied. He offered to pay for the restaurant to open. He lied. He met with Kobe Bryant. He lied. He met with Kobe Bryant’s wife. He lied. He met with Kobe Bryant’s mother. He lied. He lied.

Well, it seems that Newsom’s lies have come to an end. He was arrested for drunk driving in San Francisco. He was arrested for driving while under the influence of drugs.

Newsom’s lies have come to an end. He is going to prison. He is going to jail. He is going to be locked up.

The end of Newsom’s lies. The end of Newsom’s pretending. The end of Newsom’s games.

It’s time for Newsom to stop. It’s time for Newsom to be held accountable. It’s time for Newsom to be punished.

Sonoma Raceway will team up with No Stomach for Cancer for the 10th annual John’s March Against Stomach Cancer on Saturday, Jan. 9, but the popular event will take a virtual turn for 2021.

In its nine-year history, John’s March has raised more than $145,000 for stomach cancer research and awareness. The event was founded and named in honor of longtime raceway spokesperson John Cardinale, who passed away in 2013 after a two-year battle with stomach cancer.

John’s March is the only one of its kind in Sonoma County. According to the 24 Hour Fitness health protocol, participants are required to wear masks and social distance. However, the planning committee is working through play. A gym has never registered as essential with me, but interpretations of what is essential are subjective. Perhaps I have a tolerance for cheating.

Though I have tried my best to follow guidelines and keep myself and others safe, I have seen many instances outside of work and essential services were put on hold—barbers were directed to cease operations, and many other activities to cease. We have been forced to adapt and to take care of our immediate futures. Embrace the Christmas Story and enjoy the season

The holidays really are good for us!

The Holidays are getting a bad press this year. The stress, the monotony, the loneliness. And it’s true that this year has been exceptionally challenging. But there’s good news.

1. Stress

If you’re struggling to cope with the added stress, the good news is that it’s 100% okay. You’re not alone. Everyone you know has been in your shoes this year, and they’re feeling it too.

2. A Christmas spirit network in the brain

The brain is the organ of choice when it comes to remembering and processing emotions. And when you think about Christmas, you might be surprised to learn that your brain is hard at work. In fact, the brain has a special network dedicated to the Christmas spirit. It’s called the “Christmas network.”

3. Spending money on gifts for other people can make you happier than spending it on yourself.

According to a study published in the Journal of Personality and Social Psychology, people who spend money on gifts for others are happier than those who spend it on themselves. So if you’re feeling a little low, why not donate to a charity or buy a gift for someone else?

4. Depression

There’s good news for those struggling with depression. The holidays can be a time of great joy and celebration. And while it may not feel like it, you’re not alone. Many others are also feeling the same way.

5. Acceptance

Acceptance is key. If you’re feeling overwhelmed by the holidays, it’s okay to ask for help. Reach out to a friend, family member, or professional. You’re not alone.

December isn’t over yet, so let’s make the most of it!
Meet the CSC FLOORING & DESIGN TEAM and a masked Santa doing a no-contact hand-off. While not all the pomp & circumstance of prior years, the bottom line was that we delivered 200 bags of food and bags of toys for underprivileged families in our community. Because of lockdown restrictions, we were not able to visit in-person. But our members and a masked Santa did their best to make the delivery special. We are proud of the commitment of our employees and the community leadership.

Vaccines that may potentially prevent coronavirus (COVID-19)—an infectious disease caused by a new virus— are not yet available and are not appropriate for everyone. Vaccines are available through mobile clinics inside nursing homes and care facilities across Sonoma County besides Public Health with the capability to store -70°C. The FDA is expected to approve another vaccine candidate, developed by Moderna and the National Institutes of Health, that has proved about as protective as Pfizer’s vaccine on an interim basis. The company is also making its way through the pipeline and is expected to make one or more COVID-19 vaccines available as soon as possible.

The vaccine distribution process will require individuals to be made aware of dates and times and to arrive at the clinic or site at the specified time. The vaccine will be given only to those who have been invited for vaccination. Pets are not allowed. In addition, we encourage our community to get vaccinated. FGSD members and employees, along with community partners, are working to ensure that the vaccine is available to all members of the community.

What are the keys to prepare to grow wealthy together?

When you marry or simply share a household with someone, you prepare to grow wealthy together. You need to map out your financial life changes and your approach to managing your money may change as well. Here are a few tips that may help.

What do you want to accomplish with your finances?

Setting financial goals is the first step to managing your money effectively. Whether you want to save for retirement, buy a home, or start a business, having clear goals will help you stay focused and motivated.

How often will you check up on your financial progress?

Monitoring your financial progress is crucial to staying on track with your goals. You should check your budget and financial statements on a regular basis to ensure you are meeting your financial objectives.

How much will you spend & save?

Creating a budget will help you track your expenses and savings. Make sure to allocate funds for essentials such as housing, food, and transportation, as well as savings for emergencies and long-term goals.

Financial trouble vs. financial misery

Financial trouble can happen to anyone, regardless of income or financial background. Financial misery, on the other hand, is a state of mind that can lead to depression and anxiety.

What are the keys to prepare to grow wealthy together?

When you marry or simply share a household with someone, you should be aware of the financial habits of your partner. If you have different financial goals or styles, it's important to communicate and come to an agreement about how to manage your finances.

Local fire departments host 15th annual competition

15th Annual Bucket Brigade Blood Drive List and schedule

Vitalant, in coordination with 21 fire departments across Sonoma, Lake and Mendocino counties, is proud to announce the 15th Annual Bucket Brigade Blood Drive Challenge. The friendly competition among participating fire departments to see which department can host the largest blood drive between December 6 and January 20, 2021, is part of Vitalant’s ongoing effort to boost on important relationships.

For more than a decade, Vitalant has worked in coordination with participating fire departments to see which department can host the largest blood drive. Each year, Vitalant seeks to raise awareness for blood donors and to give back to the local community who make these blood drives possible.

The Bucket Brigade Challenge has encouraged more than 11,000 participants. Last year, Sonoma County Fire District won the coveted Bucket Trophy with 100 participants.

Each participating fire department has selected a donation date and location, which may also include multiple donor locations. The challenge encourages local and regional blood drives through the month of December to help meet supply needs and for Vitalant to donate lifesaving blood.

Sagas in COVID-19 times, wildfires, hurricanes and other natural disasters combined with the cancellation of blood drives at schools, businesses and community organizations have brought the supply to a critical level on a national level. Donating blood is one of many ways community members can have an immediate impact in our communities.

To find a drive near you, please see the complete list below. To make an appointment, visit www.vitalant.org.

I wish you all a Happy Holidays! Stay safe and healthy. Cassandra May Albaugh, Circulation Manager

Hello! I am the news team leader and have worked for the Community Voice newspaper off and on for the last 27 years. My job is copy-writing and finding stories that will interest the readers of our community. I have been with the newspaper for many years, volunteering at the School of Hope for several years and enjoying meeting and greeting new friends.

I do the “To Ponder” “History” and “Sweeping up solutions” columns for the newspaper every week.

I look forward to meeting you and helping you advertise your businesses, events, and organizations through my role at the paper and in my volunteer work for the Sonoma County Rotary Club, which I have been a member of for the last 27 years. My job is copy-editing and finding news that will interest the readers of our community newspaper.
